

We're recruiting!!

YOUTH AND COMMUNITY FAMILY SUPPORT WORKER (YCFSW)

Full-time - 37 hours a per week. NJC – Scale 5: 12 – 17. £28,598- £31,022

A fantastic opening has arisen at our well-established supporting families Charity. We are looking for an enthusiastic, energetic, self-motivated person, who is a team player to fill this role. Essential experience of working with children, young people, and families is required for this exciting and challenging opportunity for the right person, who has a genuine passion for helping children, young people, families, and individuals, making a difference in the lives of others and the community we serve.

The aim of the role is to support, guide and empower children and young people up to 25 years so they can develop the skills, confidence and values needed to become responsible, independent and active members of society as well as give practical and emotional support, helping children, young people, and their families to bring about positive sustainable change to their lives. Responsibilities include, planning and leading group sessions, facilitating youth activities and supporting families in their own homes; offering parental advice and support, and practical hands-on work that includes heavy moving and handling in helping to reorganise and make homes safe. Also, you will be leading adult and children/young people's groups, befriending and mentoring sessions, fundraising, and social activities.

Do you have the experience and passion we are looking for? Excellent communications and 'people' skills, recording skills, experience with youth and challenging behaviour and a hunger for changing life for the better. All of these are essential for this emotionally and physically demanding and very exciting job. YCFSW work closely with Project staff, volunteers, Board of Trustees, other professionals, Charities and the community at large. You will be working within a very supportive team, with the benefit of 28 days annual leave, plus paid bank holidays and three months paid sick leave, alongside a generous pension scheme.

If this opportunity is for you, then get in touch.
